EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

EPITOME OF SIVA BHAKTI: Many of the servitors of Lord Siva hailed from ordinary backgrounds, and they lived only to serve the Lord. Any disservice or insult to the Lord, disruption of events or disrespect to articles used in prayer and puja was enough to rouse the wrath of the Nayanmars who did not hesitate to mete out punishment forthwith, regardless of whether it was a human or a beast, said P. Swaminathan. Sivakaamiyaar, a devotee who resided in Karur, was in the habit of gathering flowers to offer in the worship of the deity at Aanilai. Also residing in the same town was Eripathanar, a Nayanmar who wielded a battle axe and used if anything untoward happened to Sivanadiyars.

During one Navaratri, the royal camp was set up in Karur and the king's crown elephant was in the habit of bathing in the river. Sivakaamiyar was proceeding to the temple with floral offering when the elephant went berserk, snatched the basket, smashed the flowers underfoot. The mahouts fled the scene with the elephant. On hearing about the desecration, Eripathanar chased the elephant, chopped off its trunk and felled the mahouts. The king, on hearing that the crown elephant has been attacked, treated it as an act of war and set out with his army to destroy the 'enemies of the kingdom.' However, upon learning of his elephant's wrathful deed, the king proclaimed that the offence against a devotee of 'the Lord of the beautiful eyes' required that he himself be punished too. Astounded by the king's devotion to Siva, Eripathanar felt it was wrong to punish such a devotee and was about to cut his own neck, when a celestial voice proclaimed that the entire proceedings was divine play by the Lord. The elephant too was restored to life.—In The Hindu

SUV spotted parked atop dumpster

Florida: The mystery of an SUV seen perched on top of a Florida dumpster was revealed to have involved a poorly-timed parking job, a construction site and a forklift.

Scott Greenberg said he was on his way to the store when he spotted the vehicle parked on top of a dumpster off East Point Drive in Fort Myers.

It turned out the SUV had been lifted onto the dumpster by a forklift operated by a construction worker helping to build a new apartment complex.

Workers said the vehicle had been left parked in a work area. The vehicle was later removed from the dumpster and relocated to a parking space away from the work area.

Construction workers said they learned the SUV belongs to a contractor who loans it out to out-of-town workers in need of transportation.

Zoo exhibits dogs disguised as pandas

Beijing: A zoo exhibit is raising controversy online after a video showed a pair of dogs with their fur coloured to look like pandas.

A video posted on social media went viral this week after showing the two fluffy chow chow dogs with their fur artificially coloured to resemble pandas at the Shanwei Zoo in southern Guangdong province.

It does not appear the zoo was intending to mislead visitors, however, as a photo shows a sign identifying the animals as "panda dogs."

A zoo spokesman explained the zoo put the dogs on display because it does not have any resident pandas, but he denied the fur dying process was in any way dangerous or harmful to the canines.

Yuva Dasara shifted to city outskirts

- 100-acre land near Uttanahalli Road identified to organise the popular Yuva Dasara; decision taken by the authorities to reduce traffic congestion inside the city
- About one lakh daily footfalls expected during the five-day gala event from Oct. 6 to Oct. 10
- Musical Nites of Melody Maestro Ilayaraja, renowned Music Director A.R. Rahman, singer Shreya Ghosal, rapper Badshah, music composer Ravi Basrur of KGF-fame likely

The 100-acre open space close to Uttanahalli where Yuva Dasara is scheduled to be held.

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (RK&VNS)- Yuva Dasara, one of the most awaited events of Nada Habba Mysuru Dasara, attracts a lot of youngsters, especially the college crowd, not only from Mysuru, but from the surrounding districts as well. Till last year, Open Air Theatre in Manasagangothri was the venue, prior to which it was a regular feature at Maharaja's College Grounds on Krishnaraja Boulevard.

However, this year, the music enthusiasts will have to travel to the outskirts, about 9 kms from KSRTC City Bus Stand to reach the new Yuva Dasara venue located near Uttanahalli, off Mysuru-Nanjangud Road.

With the State Government having decided to organise Dasara on a grand scale, a team of officials led by Deputy Commissioner (DC) G. Lakshmikanth Reddy, who is also the Dasara Special Officer, Yuva Dasara Sub-Committee's Deputy Special Officer and SP N. Vishnuvardhana and Assistant Commissioner K.R. Rakshith inspected various spots within and outside the city, to host the event. However, with no suitable venue available to accommodate about a lakh audience, the authorities have decided to organise this year's Yuva Dasara on a 100-acre land belonging to a private party, near Uttanahalli.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, DC G. Lakshmikanth Reddy said that, they were expecting a turnout of about a lakh audience, with the best of music composers and singers performing at this year's Yuva Dasara.

"The team of officials inspected various venues across the city and outskirts as well. With more than a lakh of people expected to attend the event, we have decided to host the event in the newly identified land located on the Uttanahalli Road," he added.

Rs. 5,000 for ticketed shows

This year, the music enthusiasts, who wish to enjoy the events from VIP gallery, will have to shell out Rs. 5,000 per ticket for a single day's event. With legendary music composers like Ilayaraja and A.R. Rahman expected to perform in Mysuru during the five-day event to be held from Oct. 6 to 10 and people not only from Mysuru but from neighbouring districts and Bengaluru expected to come in droves, the sources said that, about 10,000 tickets would be put on sale online.

The District Administration aims at raising the funds through sale of tickets to cover the expenses of Yuva Dasara which alone is estimated to be around Rs. 14 crore.

Ilayaraja, A.R. Rahman to perform?

Ilayaraja A.R. Rahman Shreya Ghosal Badshah Ravi Basrur

If everything goes as per the plan, Mysuru will host both legendary musicians Ilayaraja and A.R. Rahman, for the first time during Navarathri festivities. It may be recalled that A.R. Rahman during his early days used to work as a keyboardist under Ilayaraja before becoming a composer himself. However, both will be performing on different days, albeit on the same stage.

Apart from the legendary musicians, noted playback singer Shreya Ghosal, rapper Badshah and Kannada music composer Ravi Basrur of KGF-fame, will be performing during the five-day Yuva Dasara. 'Sandalwood Night,' which is a regular feature of Yuva Dasara, will be organised under the supervision of renowned film director S. Narayan, this time.

Huge stage to be installed

This year, the audience at Yuva Dasara can look for a different experience, no less than a carnival. A huge stage measuring 150-ft. in length and 75-ft. in width, a largest stage ever set for any mega event, is expected to be built for this big ticket show by Nirmithi Kendra. Such wide stages are inevitable for the concerts of Ilayaraja and A.R. Rahman as they are accompanied by symphony (an orchestra's large-scale musical composition, usually requiring 50-80 instruments).

How to get there?

Parking, other facilities

With Yuva Dasara venue shifted to the city outskirts, the District Administration and Mysuru District Police have chalked out plans to provide basic amenities and security at the venue. While the authorities will provide drinking water, mobile toilets, parking and transportation facilities, the District Police will provide adequate security on the roads leading to the venue and at the venue. Sufficient lighting arrangements will be made to ensure safety of the audience.

'Pouti Khata of 10-acre land on Kalidasa Road is legal'

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (GA&DM)- Senior Advocate O. Sham Bhat maintained that the Pouti Khata done in respect of 10 acres of land adjacent to Kalidasa Road in Jayalakshmipuram, coming under Hinkal Survey No. 155, is genuine and there is no illegality in it.

Addressing a press meet at Pathrakartara Bhavan in city yesterday, Sham Bhat said that the then Tahsildar had sanctioned 10 acres 3 guntas of land coming under Hinkal Survey No. 155 to Ramaiah, who belonged to SC community and his cousin brother P. Thimmaiah on Feb. 3, 1963.

Later, following an application by Ramaiah, the then Tahsildar sanctioned the remaining land coming under Hinkal Survey No. 155 through a Darakasthu and a separate Podi on Aug. 20, 1963 to him, leaving out the 10 acres and 3 guntas of land belonging to Ramaiah, he said.

Continuing, Sham Bhat said that thereafter Thimmaiah had got Revenue Khata to land in Survey No. 155/a. This has been recorded in Revenue documents such as Index of Land, Records of Right and RTC.

Likewise, the RTC has been done to the land belonging to Ramaiah. In the sketch , it has been recorded that 10 acres of land stands in the name of Ramaiah, while 10 acres and 3 guntas of land stands in the name of Thimmaiah.

Thereafter, Ramaiah had got the change of land use in respect of the land belonging to Thimmaiah and subsequently, the Hinkal Panchayat had done separate Khatas in the name of Ramaiah and Thimmaiah.

Later, when the land coming under Hinkal Survey No. 155 came under the control of MCC, Thimmaiah got a separate Khata done for his land.

Likewise, Ramaiah too got the Khata done in his name in 1988 and subsequently, both Ramaiah and Thimmaiah began to pay Revenues to the MCC.

After the death of Ramaiah in 2000, his family members have been paying the Revenue to the MCC since then. However, Ramaiah's family then did not get done the Pouti Khata following his death. After some time, Ramaiah's family members filed an application to the MCC seeking Pouti Khata.

Acting on the application, the MCC authorities, after thoroughly screening the documents, did the Pouti Khata. But some vested interests, who were waiting to grab this prime land, raised their objections against the Pouti Khata in the name of the deceased Ramaiah's family members.

The MCC authorities who came under the influence of these vested interests, have temporarily withheld the transferred Pouti Khata, Bhat explained adding that this withholding the Pouti Khata is absolutely illegal.

Pointing out that fudging or forging of land records belonging to SC community persons amounts to atrocities against them, Bhat said that the family members of late Ramaiah have decided to lodge an atrocities act against the vested persons.

Bhat further said that the Kuvempu Trust filed an application to the Government in 1964 saying that they would use the 20 acres of land belonging to Ramaiah and Thimmaiah for educational purposes. But as the said land is owned by SC Community members, the sanction for the request needed a State Cabinet approval.

In the meantime, the vested interests submitted a fake land sanction letter in the name of a fictitious Tahsildar Niranjan Agarwal, he said adding that Ramaiah's family members have waged a legal battle in the Court in this regard.

Ramaiah's family members and farmer leader Saragur Nataraj were present at the press meet.

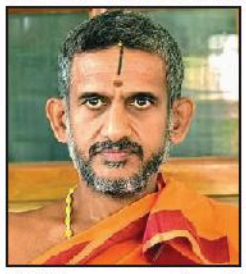
Row over Tirupati Laddu Prasada

Hindus must manage temples, not Government: Spiritual Gurus

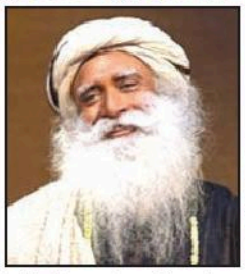
Ayodhya/ Udupi, Sept. 23 (Agencies)- Following the raging controversy over animal fat and adulterated ghee found in Tirupati Laddu Prasadam distributed to devotees by Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) Trust, prominent religious heads have vociferoulsy demanded for handing over the management of the temples to Hindu community, freeing them from the clutches of the Government, that is managing the affairs of the temples.

Udupi Pejawar Mutt Seer Sri Vishwaprasanna Teertha Swamiji, Isha Foundation Founder and spiritual guru Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev and Art of Living (AOL) Founder Sri Ravishankar Guruji have issued separate statements in this regard. They have collectively opined that, temples and places of worship, belonging to Hindu community, should not be managed by the Government. They have to be run by the devotees and Hindu community.

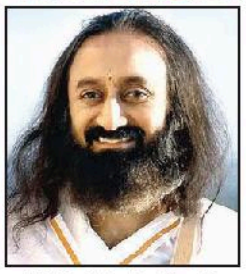
Sri Vishwaprasanna Teertha Swamiji, who is presently in Ayodhya, quoted the Supreme Court judgement in this regard, that has also ruled in favour of Hindu community to look into the affairs of the temples and religious heads. It should come into effect immediately and Tirumala Tirupati Temple of Andhra Pradesh should be handed over to Hindu community.



Sri Vishwaprasanna Swamiji



Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev



Sri Ravishankar Guruji

Instead of mixing the cow ghee while preparing Laddu Prasada, adulterated ghee has been used, which cannot be called as ghee. The using of animal fat is yet another matter of grave concern, that has hurt the feelings of the people. The contents of fish oil, pig and cow fat have also been found in Laddu Prasada, a great injustice meted out to Hindu community and also to the God, said Sri Vishwaprasanna Swamiji.

Dasara with pothole-filled garbage-dumped roads!

Sir,

The world famous Dasara will soon be witnessed in our city and the district authorities are preparing for the grand event.

However, we observe that many roads are riddled with potholes, making driving a miserable experience, especially after the recent rains. Poor quality of roadwork has led to severe damage in prime areas like Bogadi-Gaddige Road and the stretch from Sharadadevinagar to the Ring Road junction.

Similarly, the dumping of garbage is escalating day by day, particularly along the service roads of the Ring Road. People are using every available spot along these roads, while no action is taken by the authorities to prevent or clear it.

The highway patrolling unit could help curb this issue, especially as the situation worsens with people dumping large quantities of banned plastic covers.

We kindly request the authorities to take immediate action so that we can celebrate Dasara on pothole-free roads and in a garbage-free city.

Mysore Varsity faculty wants comprehensive study of Mahishasura Statue atop Chamundi Hill

Mysuru, Sept.23 (GA&DM)- Stating that Mahishasura Statue atop Chamundi Hill is said to have been built about 400 years ago, University of Mysore Commerce Department faculty Prof. D. Anand said that a comprehensive study is needed to know complete information of the history of the statue.

He was speaking after inaugurating the seminar titled 'Mahisha Mandala - A Study' organised by Mahisha Dasara Aacharana Samithi as part of Mahisha Mandalotsava at Vishwamaitri Buddha Vihar here on Saturday.

Pointing out that there is complete information on who built the Chamundi Temple, Nandi Statue and the Hill steps, Prof. Anand wanted to know why there was no information on Mahishasura Statue.

Musical Nite sets perfect Sunday Mood

Rtn. V.N. Prasad and Dr. M.S. Natashekar led troupe of singers entertain music buffs at 'Raj, Rajendra and Rajesh Musical Nite'

Dr. M.S. Natashekar performing during the Musical Nite along with his daughter Apoorva.

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (MK&BS)- 'Raj, Rajendra and Rajesh Musical Nite' held at Senate Hall in Manasagangothri here yesterday, set a perfect mood for Sunday evening, amid the blanket of chilly weather following the sudden rains.

Noted ENT Specialist Dr. M.S. Natashekar and Rtn. V.N. Prasad led the musical nite, organised jointly by Rotary Ivory City Mysuru and Rotary Chamarajanagar Dialysis Centre, to raise funds for the cause of the poor and destitutes of Chamarajanagar district.

The troupe belted out yesteryear's hit numbers, to the full house of music buffs.

Prasad, a retired Design Engineer, set the tone by mellifluously singing the song 'Yeh Sham Mastani...' from Hindi film 'Kati Pathang.'

The lilting duet song by singers Mamata Bhanuprakash and Syed Shabir, popular as 'Junior Md. Rafi,' recreated the magic of 'Chhup Gaye Saare Nazare...' from the film 'Do Raaste.'

Dr. Natashekar cast a magical spell with the rendition of the song 'Dum Dum Diga Diga...' from the film 'Chhalia.'

About 25 hit songs from the Bollywood entertained the gathering, with Syed Shabir and Jayanthi V. Bhat singing 'Yunhi Tum Mujhse Baat Karti Ho' from Sachaa Jhutha, Dr. Natashekar and his daughter Apoorva Natashekar 'Dil Ki Nazar Se' from Anari and singer Hamsini S. Kumar and Prasad rendering 'Karvaten Badalte Rahe Saari Raat Hum' from Aap Ki Kasam.

The interval between every song turned out to be a laugh riot with the skilful compering of Syed Aftab Ahmed.

The percussionists, H.B. Jayaram and troupe provided a perfect accompaniment to the singers.

Navarathri at Mysore Palace

Kanjan chosen as Pattada Aane, Bheema as Nishane Aane for rituals

Erstwhile Mysore Royal Family Member Pramoda Devi Wadiyar, who inspected the Dasara jumbos yesterday to select Pattada Aane and Nishane Aane for Palace rituals, is seen feeding sugarcane to the jumbos along with her grandson Aadyaveer Narasimharaja Wadiyar. DCF (Wildlife) Dr. I.B. Prabhu Gowda is seen giving details about the jumbos.

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (MTY&KS)- Dasara elephant Kanjan has been selected as Pattada Aane (Royal Elephant) while Bheema has been selected as Nishane Aane (Lead Elephant) for the rituals conducted by the Mysore Royal Family at the Palace during Navarathri, said DCF (Wildlife) Dr. I.B. Prabhu Gowda.

Navarathri is being celebrated from Oct. 3 to 12, during which the scion of Mysore Royal Family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, who is also the Mysuru-Kodagu MP, will ascend the gem-studded Golden Throne and hold the Private Durbar.

Also, the Royal Family will be holding various rituals during which the Royal Elephant, Royal Cow, Royal Camel and women carrying Kalashas will proceed from Kodi Someshwara Temple till the Kannadi Thotti carrying the God, which is a tradition.

In this backdrop, 25-year-old Kanjan and 24-year-old Bheema have been selected for the Palace Navarathri rituals.

Seven elephants inspected

Member of the erstwhile Mysore Royal Family Pramoda Devi Wadiyar yesterday conducted the process to select the Royal Elephant. Following her request, five male Dasara jumbos (Bheema, Kanjan, Sugreeva, Gopi and Ekalavya) and two female elephants (Lakshmi and Hiranya) were brought near Kannadi Thotti. Pramoda Devi, who inspected the elephants, selected Kanjan and Bheema for the Palace rituals.

Jumboo Savari: Dhananjaya leads route training

People throng procession route to have a glimpse, click pics

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (PM&KS)- With Dasara festivities commencing on Oct. 3 and concluding with Jumboo Savari on Vijayadashami Day on Oct. 12, a total of 14 Dasara elephants from various elephant camps have arrived in two batches to Mysore Palace.

As part of route familiarisation exercise and weight carrying training, these jumbos are taken on Jumboo Savari route so that they get accustomed to the sound and noise of vehicles.

Yesterday evening, Dhananjaya led 12 other jumbos (except Varalakshmi) during the training on Jumboo Savari route which was crowded by localites and tourists as it was a Sunday.

Curious onlookers clicked photos of the 13 Dasara jumbos walking majestically from Mysore Palace to Government Ayurveda Hospital Circle passing via Chamaraja Circle, K.R. Circle and Sayyaji Rao Road and returning to the Palace on the same route.

While Dhanjaya led the jumbos, Golden Howdah carrier Captain Abhimanyu followed the jumbos in the end. While these jumbos were passing on Sayyaji Rao Road, many people, who were standing near Devaraja Market offered flowers and the Mahouts, who received the flowers placed them on the head of the jumbos. Children, who usually see elephants on TV, were thrilled to see them in front of them and enjoyed thoroughly.

Wooden Howdah carrying exercise to continue tomorrow: DCF (Wildlife) Dr. I.B. Prabhu Gowda, speaking to SOM yesterday, said that as a fresh coat of paint is applied to the Wooden Howdah, it was not used for training yesterday and there will be no Wooden Howdah carrying training today (Sept. 23) also and this training will continue from tomorrow (Sept. 24). It is yet to be decided to which elephant the Wooden Howdah will be mounted, the DCF added.

Hindu organisations stage protest against attacks on Ganesha idol processions

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (GA&DM)- Strongly condemning the attacks on Ganesha idol processions across the State, members of various Hindu organisations, under the banner of Hindu Para Sanghatanegala Okkoota, staged a massive demonstration in front of the new Deputy Commissioner's Office on Bannur Road here this morning.

Addressing the protestors, former MP Prathap Simha alleged that members of minority community are responsible for the attacks on Ganesha processions.

Pointing out that the attacks are pre-planned ones aimed at preventing holding of Ganesha processions from at least next year, he urged the Government to take stringent action against the perpetrators of such attacks.

Referring to the adulteration of Tirupati Laddu, Simha said that minority appeasement is primarily responsible for such incidents and called for unity among all Hindus.

Stating that the shocking revelation has made the Hindus sad and worried, he said the Government must take all measures for restoring the sanctity of Tirupati Laddu.

Referring to the planned celebration of Mahisha Dasara ahead of Dasara festival, the former MP said that he would not allow Mahisha Dasara. Warning the organisers against dividing the Hindu community, he said that the Chamundi Hill was not the right place for Mahisha Dasara.

Earlier, the protestors, carrying placards with pictures of Lord Ganesha and raising slogans, marched in a procession from Male Mahadeshwaraswamy temple on Old Dairy Road to the new DC Office in Siddarathangar, where they submitted a memorandum to ADC Dr. P. Shivaraju. City BJP President L. Nagendra, ex-BJP Corporators and members of Hindu outfits took part.

Baby boy dies in accident

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (RK&KS)- A baby boy was killed on the spot, when a car rammed into the bike he was riding along with his parents, in front of a petrol bunk between Lingadevarakoppal and Yelwal on Hunsur Road yesterday afternoon.

The deceased is one-and-a-half-year-old Likith, son of Abhishek and Divyashree couple, residents of Yelwal in city.

Yesterday afternoon, Abhishek, along with his wife and child left their home on the bike to the house of his in-laws at Janatanagar in city.

While they were proceeding in front of the petrol bunk, a speeding KIA Sonnet car rammed into the bike from behind killing Likith on the spot and injuring the couple. The impact was such that Likith was tossed for about 10 ft. in the air and crashed on the road.

Yelwal Police, who reached the spot, conducted mahazar, registered a case, seized the car and shifted the body to MMC&RI mortuary. Post-mortem was conducted this morning and the body was handed over to grieving family members.

The untold tragedy of Gyanvapi in Kashi now told in Kannada

By Prof. G.L. Shekar

The Kannada version of the recent book of well-known Indian Historian Dr. Vikram Sampath — Waiting for Shiva: Unearthing the Truth of Kashi's Gyanvapi — was released at Bengaluru recently.

The book titled "Shivanigagi Kayutta: Kashi Gyanavapiya Satyada Anavarana" was released by Ajit Hanumakanavar, Chief of News and Programmes, Suvarna News Channel.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Vikram Sampath said that "Kashi is an emotion — it is an ethos that has captivated the Hindu mind for millennia. It has been a yearning of many Hindus to visit Kashi at least once in their lives."

Kashi and its temples faced so many plunders and attacks; from Aibak in 1194 CE, Raziya Sultana, the Jaunpur's Sharqui dynasty, to the devastating demolitions by Sikandar Lodi in 1494-96, the sacred city and its holy shrines were left in heaps of ruins and wails of agony. "Yet, every time, the Hindus picked up their pieces and the shrine managed to resurface in close proximity of the original one," he said.

The wealth of literary, historical and legal proofs, as well as archaeological evidence that emerged with the recent survey conducted by the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI), added further credence to the fact that the entire Kashi Vishwanatha temple belonged to Hindus.

"It is unfortunate that where even asserting our Hinduness is anathema and looked at as a malignant expression of bigotry," he lamented.

Every other community in India could proudly wear its identity and faith on its sleeve. But for a Hindu to do so was deemed regressive, communal and had pejorative connotations.

When he started writing this book, Dr. Vikram was poured over texts, myths, stories, travelogues, court historian accounts, and the copious amount of legal documents from the nineteenth century till date. There were the fantastic stories encapsulated in Hindu scriptural texts. From a writer's perspective too, it was a unique challenge for him to string together a semblance of a cogent narrative from across such diverse sources — all separated in time, language, context and content. But bringing these together was quintessential to understand what the contours of the legal case as it stands today was, Dr. Vikram explained during his 90-minute interaction at the jam-packed auditorium.

This book illustrates how an overt religious war could not be launched to liberate sacred cities like Kashi, as India had already come under the tight fist of Middle Eastern colonialism with the Arabs and Turks having made fatal incursions. However, a silent crusade was always being on. Barely two decades after Kashi faced a deathly blow of iconoclasm by the marauder Qutubuddin Aibak (1194 CE), a Sena king of Bengal named Vishwarupa, erected a sacrificial post and a victory pillar, right in the middle of the city to almost mark and declare that the temple might have been gone, but the city belonged to its deity Vishweshwara.

From the Hoysala king Vira Narasimha III in southern India who pledged an entire village in 1279 CE to help pilgrims pay the brutal and oppressive pilgrim tax to visit Kashi, to a Gujarati businessman Seth Vastupal donating large sums to rebuild the temple, the consciousness of cities like Kashi being their holiest was rife in the Hindu mind, across the country — north, south, east or west.

The strong Hindu belief that once a temple, always a temple and the holy site being sacrosanct has historically led both Hindu rulers and commoners alike to doggedly continue with their struggle to get back what is so sacred to them.

As the reader will discover in this book, there are touching examples of how in the midst of the severest barbarities, Hindu royalties and commoners alike, kept the flame of their faith and their devotion to these sacred sites ablaze. They never gave up on the sites that mattered to them for generations, as these had been seeded with the devotion, tears, and ardour of their ancestors, to whom they owed this responsibility. Dr. Vikram narrates though shrines might have been demolished brutally, but the importance of Kashi and its Lord Vishwanatha remained intact in the minds, memories, and literature of people.

The book highlights how scholars like Narayana Bhatta leveraged their influence with the political class of their times, especially when a slightly more favourable atmosphere prevailed under Mughal rulers like Akbar and got a grand Vishwanatha temple constructed in 1580 CE with the intervention of Raja Todar Mall.

The final death blow, however, was meted by the bigot and Islamic zealot Aurangzeb, who ruthlessly pulled down the Kashi Vishwanatha temple in 1669 and erected domes on the partially destroyed western wall to call it a mosque. The area that is now called the Gyanvapi mosque has always been one of intense contestation.

During post-independence too the desire to liberate the complex has been seething in the Hindu imagination. A new suit filed in 2021 before the Varanasi civil court reopened a long-festering historical wound. The significant part of the book is the illustration of survey of ASI that laid bare the truth of Gyanvapi in its findings in January 2024.

Dr. Vikram writes about the common reverence of the Indic faiths to their civilisational sacredness. For instance, it is best illustrated by Sikh Maharaja Ranjit Singh of Punjab donating generously in 1839 to gold-plate the domes and spires of this temple constructed by Ahilya Bai. Be it Punjab or Maharashtra, Sikh or Hindu, man or woman, seventeenth or eighteenth centuries, the memory of the importance of Kashi Vishwanatha (and other such holy places) remained unbroken irrespective of the barbarities inflicted to eradicate it. Reclaiming them or providing justice to the historical wrongs that were perpetrated on our ancestors must be the hallmark of any mature, modern democracy, opines Dr. Vikram.

Let us hope better sense prevails in the current times where places of sacrosanct importance such as Kashi and Mathura do not become playgrounds for toxic politics and social unrest, and in a sense of generous give and take, in the largest interests of national unity and harmony.

Prof. G.L. Shekar, S.S. Narendrakumar, Shashank Parashara and Srigowri S. Joshi have translated the original book in English, published by BlueOne Ink, to Kannada, which is published by Sahitya Prakashana, Hubli.

Dasara Wrestling Championship - 2024

Sub-Committee completes pairing of wrestlers

Mysuru, Sept. 23(SBD&VNS)- Dasara Wrestling Sub-Committee has started its preparations for this year's Wrestling Championship. The Committee on Sunday formally completed the pairing of a total of 360 wrestlers for the competitions to be held in different age and weight categories at the P. Kalinga Rao Auditorium in Dasara Exhibition Ground premises.

District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, who inaugurated the event, said: "Mysuru style of wrestling was famous in country because of the support and contributions extended by the then Mysore Maharajas. People used to come in large numbers to watch Pailwan Rudra Mooga and later Ppailwans Balaji, Nanjangud Nanjaiah, Nazarbad Narayan, Dildar Riyaz, Mukunda, Srikantu, Vijayendra, Krishna, Narasimhaswamy, R. Mahadevu among others taking on their opponents."

Remembering the days when he was an MLA, Dr. Mahadevappa said that the then SP Munikrishna was instrumental in organising regular wrestling bouts bringing the various wrestling schools (akadas) together at the Chennaiah Grounds. "After I assumed the charge as Health Minister, there was a lot of development works that were carried out including the construction of a compound wall. Later, Dhruvanarayan with the help of CM Siddaramaiah developed the wrestling and multipurpose stadium in the name of former CM D. Devaraja Urs," he said.

"Wrestling has a long history and heritage. Nowadays, it has been restricted to Dasara. At first, there is a need to rejuvenate garadis (traditional wresting schools) for which discussions should be held with the coaches. A discussion will be held with CM Siddaramaiah soon after the Dasara Festival to chalk-out a programme to bring back the glorious days of wrestling."

—District in-Charge Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa

The District Minister also remembered the days when he, along with CM Siddaramaiah, visited the ground to watch the wrestling bouts. "Large crowd also gathered at Doddakere Maidan to watch football matches. However, in the recent years, people have lost interest in sports which brings everyone together. There is need to encourage sports, especially wrestling which is a part of Mysuru's culture and heritage," he added.

MLA T.S. Srivatsa, Karnataka Exhibition Authority (KEA) Chairman Ayub Khan, DC G. Lakshmikanth Reddy, City Police Commissioner Seema Latkar, DCPs M. Muthuraju and S. Jahnavi, KEA CEO Rudresh, Wrestling Sub-Committee Dy. Special Officer & ASP L. Nagesh and Pailwans were present.

Double gold for India

Budapest, Sept. 23 (Agencies)- India created history at the 2024 FIDE Chess Olympiad in Hungary, securing two gold medals in a dominant performance.

The men's team, featuring D. Gukesh, R. Praggnanandhaa, Arjun Erigaisi, Vidit Gujrathi and Pentala Harikrishna clinched gold in the open section, while the women's team, consisting of Harika Dronavalli, R. Vaishali, Divya Deshmukh, Vantika Agarwal, and Tania Sachdev also claimed gold in women's section.

The men's team confirmed their triumph with victories from Gukesh and Erigaisi, establishing an early 2-0 lead over Slovenia. With the team requiring only a draw to secure the title ahead of China, Praggnanandhaa delivered a win to seal the gold, while Vidit later secured a draw, wrapping up a 3.5-0.5 win.

Meanwhile, the Indian women's team displayed a calculated approach in their final match against Azerbaijan, winning 3.5-0.5. With the result of Kazakhstan's match against the USA determining their fate, India awaited confirmation of their victory, which was eventually secured after it became clear that Kazakhstan could not overtake them, even on tie-breakers.

This marked India's first outright gold medal in the Olympiad, following a shared gold with Russia in the 2020 online edition. The women's team improved upon their 2022 performance, where they won bronze at the Chennai Olympiad. Standout performances from Gukesh and Erigaisi earned them individual gold medals on boards 1 and 3, respectively, with Erigaisi winning nine of his 11 games.

In the women's section, Divya Deshmukh and Vantika Agarwal claimed individual gold medals on boards 3 and 4, adding to India's tally of four individual golds across both categories.

India's double triumph underscores the nation's rising prowess in international chess, with five Indian players recently competing in the prestigious Candidates Tournament, further highlighting India's growing influence in the global chess community.

WORD OF THE DAY

Winnow

Pronunciation: WIN-oh (Verb)
Meaning: In general contexts, winnowing is about removing what is not wanted. One can winnow items, or one can winnow something that has items: you winnow less important or less desirable items by removing them from a group, list, etc.; and you winnow a list or group by removing the less important or less desirable items from it. In agricultural contexts, to winnow chaff (unwanted seed coverings and other debris) is to remove it from grain by throwing the grain up in the air and letting the wind blow the unwanted parts away.
Origin: As Bob Dylan once sang, "You don't need a weatherman to tell which way the wind blows." In fact, all you need to do is hold up a dandelion puff the next time there's a gale blowing, and watch the wind winnow the silver-white seeds from the rest of the head. Winnow and wind are both ancient words in English, and both share an ancestor with the Latin word for wind, ventus. Winnow first applied to the removal of chaff (seed coverings and other unwanted debris) from grain using the wind or other air current. This use was soon extended to describe the removal of anything undesirable or unwanted (a current example of this sense would be "winnowing out sensitive material"). People then began using the word for the selection of the most desirable elements (as in "winnowing down the list to the most qualified applicants"). Although these senses are more familiar today to most English users than the one used in processing grain, if you have trouble remembering any of them, just remember that the answer, friend, is blowing in the wind.
Example: "Tasked with winnowing the field down to 17 semifinalists, the judges filled out score sheets for each part of the competition." — Madison Malone Kircher and Bridget Bennett, The New York Times, 30 Jan. 2024

THE ODD WORD

Waggish

Someone who is mischievous and humorous.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Chow down

Meaning: When you use the term 'Chow Down' you mean to sit down to eat.
Origin: The origin of the expression 'Chow down' comes from the U.S. military, with first usage occurring sometime around WWII. The earliest printed use comes from a December 1942 issue of The Hammond Times in a story about sailors' life on a submarine: "'Chow down, sir,' a Negro mess attendant in a white coat informed. Served on navy blue and white china we put away steak, potatoes, peas, and ice cream."
Example: "Dinner's ready; let's chow down!"
